

CHRISTOS FASLIS

Attorney at Law | Supreme Court Advocate | MCI Arb | Accredited Mediator

Founder & Principal, Faslis Law Office | Athens, Greece

61 Stadiou Street, 105 51 Athens | contact@faslis.com | www.faslis.com | privateclient.faslis.com

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Greek attorney-at-law, admitted to practise before the Supreme Court of Greece, and founder of Faslis Law Office, an independent legal practice based in Athens. First admitted to the legal profession in 2010, with over 15 years of legal practice. Advises individuals, businesses and internationally connected clients on Greek civil, commercial, property and dispute resolution matters. His work includes inheritance and succession issues, property ownership and transactions, contracts and cross-border legal coordination.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Founder & Principal | Faslis Law Office | Athens, Greece

Firm established in 2009. First bar admission: 2010.

Responsible for legal advice, client representation, case strategy, transactional review and the management of legal matters for domestic and international clients.

SELECTED PRACTICE AREAS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Private Client, Inheritance & Succession

- Advising private clients on inheritance, wills, succession rights and disputes under Greek law.
- Addressing Greek estate and property matters involving beneficiaries or clients residing abroad.
- Advising on the ownership, transfer and legal protection of private assets.

Real Estate & Property

- Reviewing property transactions, contractual documentation and title-related legal issues.
- Conducting legal due diligence and advising on property disputes and transactions.

Civil & Commercial Litigation

- Representing clients in civil and commercial proceedings and developing litigation strategies.
- Advising on contractual disputes, civil claims and enforcement issues.

Alternative Dispute Resolution

- Advising on mediation, arbitration, negotiation and dispute settlement.
- Supporting dispute prevention and cross-border dispute resolution matters.

Corporate, Data Protection & Compliance

- Advising on corporate and commercial legal matters, contracts and regulatory risk.
- Providing legal advice in data protection, compliance and AI governance.

PRIVATE CLIENT & FAMILY WEALTH LEGAL SERVICES

Faslis Private Client is a dedicated service offering of Faslis Law Office focused on legal matters concerning private property, inheritance, family succession and related cross-border issues. It brings together relevant aspects of Greek civil, inheritance, property and contractual law with dispute resolution expertise. The dedicated offering is recent and is not represented as a separate long-established practice.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

- Attorney at Law, admitted before the Supreme Court of Greece; first bar admission in 2010.
- Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (MCIArb).
- CEDR Accredited Mediator (United Kingdom); mediator accredited by the Hellenic Ministry of Justice.
- Certified Data Protection Officer – TÜV NORD.
- Certified Compliance Officer – TÜV AUSTRIA.
- Training in negotiation through the Program on Negotiation at Harvard Law School.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Athens Bar Association; Chartered Institute of Arbitrators; International Chamber of Commerce; Hellenic-French Chamber of Commerce and Industry; Hellenic-Israeli Chamber of Commerce; Club of Rome – Hellenic Chapter.

INTERNATIONAL PRACTICE & LANGUAGES

Experience advising internationally connected clients, including foreign individuals, businesses and members of the Greek diaspora. Professional interests include cross-border private client matters, international arbitration and international legal coordination.

Languages: Greek (native); English (professional working proficiency); French (working knowledge).

PROFESSIONAL APPROACH

Holistic Legal Approach – independent advice, professional integrity, confidentiality, careful risk assessment and protection of clients' legitimate interests.